A SEISMOLOGIST'S SAY.

The Canadian Astrologist, Meteorologist, Stormologist, Earthquake Weather-vane.

Prof. E. Stone Wiggins, Reminds Doubting Thomases that 'I Told You So'

A Twelve-month Ago, the Coming of the Subterranean Disturbances That

Desolated Charleston, and Which He Says, Have not yet Reached Their Worst, but

Will Continue 'till the Middle of October--Other Quake Data--Assistance Sorely Needed.

Weather Report.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10, a. m.--Indications for Illinois and Missouri: Fair weather, slightly cooler, westerly winds. For Kansas: Fair weather, slightly cooler, variable winds.

WIGGINS' PREDICTIONS.

The Scientist Gives a Theory of Earthquakes and What Causes Them.

OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 9.--Prof. E. Stone Wiggins submitted a documentary and other proofs to Minister Marine showing he predicted as far back as March last year the earthquakes prevailing south. He also announced in Ottawa Journal, May 13 last, the approach of subterranean disturbances in the same locality. The professor declared the worst is not yet reached and claims the greatest strain will be between this period and the middle of October. The southern states will again be visited by earthquakes and the disturbances will extend to California and South America.

When asked his reasons for the prediction Prof. Wiggins said: Earthquakes are caused by the shifting of the earth's center of gravity. Suppose this center be moved say one mile from the normal center of gravity, or from center of volume, now, what must happen? Why, parts of the surface at the end of the longer axis will be lighter than normal; these disks, therefore, will grind upon each other, generating heat and lava. Hence earthquakes and volcanic eruptions. If our little visible satellites were brought down and situated in the center of the earth in twenty-four hours earthquakes would occur of such violence as to render the earth uninhabitable.

Prof. Wiggins claims that these forces were in action at the end of August. Both of the earth's satellites, two of which he says exist, were then in perilous danger. He was also near his inferior conjunction, which in a limited degree increased the strain.

INNOCUOUS SHOCKS.

The Daily Quakes Now Regarded as Good Rather Than Evil Omens.

CHARLESTON, Sept. 9.--The city is quiet today, though the dream of absolute immunity from danger was rudely dispelled by a smart but innocuous shock of an earthquake between 1 and 2 this morning.

Shelter has been pretty well provided for all the homeless, but the expected rains will cause much suffering. Rations are being issued to all persons who are recommended by any reputable citizen known to the relief committee. Charleston will also furnish rations in the same way to dislocate persons at Summerville and Mt. Pleasant. There are rumors that the negroes will flock here in the hope of living in idleness and that cotton fields and truck farms will be deserted, but this is not likely to last if it begins, as great pains are taken to prevent loafers from taking advantage of the distribution of food by the relief committee.

The board of engineers are at work. They find that the parapet of the western portion of custom house is seriously damaged and its repair will involve considerable expense, but the building is safe and has sustained no other injuries. The post office is seriously damaged, but the postmaster would advise an instant removal from there if any available building is procurable. It will be propped up temporarily and rendered safe. The old club house on Meeting street is an entire wreck and will be pulled down.

Prof. Moore, of the U. S. geological survey, in a letter published today says: I desire to reiterate my firm conviction that there is not the slightest danger of a tidal wave, volcanic eruptions or other catastrophic disturbances. There is every probability that slight shocks ought to be regarded as favorable indications rather than otherwise, as they indicate that accumulated stresses to which the earthquake is so far due, are relieved from time to time.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.--Mayor Courtney, of Charleston, telegraphs Dr. Andrew Simonds, president of the First National bank of Charleston, that he now in this city that in order to shelter the homeless people before the cold weather sets in from $500,000 to $1,000,000 are immediately required. The mayor estimates the total damage to property by the earthquake at from five to six million dollars. The produce exchange, Charleston fund amounts to $7,816; stock exchange fund $12,800; and the cotton exchange to $6,492. The fund at Boston amounts to $22,000; Buffalo $4,000; and in other cities lesser amounts.

Half Not Been Told.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.--At the meeting of the Charleston relief committee at the Chamber of Commerce today, Mr. Clyde reported that the Captain of the Delaware, who was an eye witness to the scenes of suffering and misery during the first four days of earthquake at Charleston, described the misery as touching in the extreme. The Captain said one half of the population had been killed, the remainder account has been published, but did not state the ways in which people suffer, especially. The earthquake struck at all rich and poor alike. People well-to-do, having plenty in stores and supplies on hand, were cut off from their kitchens and cellars by the danger attending an entrance into dwelling houses. Hence there were delicately nurtured people without food and half naked, forced to remain out, exposed to the deadly night air. For four days the Delaware lay in the harbor here. The captain had his ship full every night of sufferers. He felt all he could in the day time to buy a supply of bread. The tent committee reported that the acting secretary of the navy had notified them that there was a large amount of condemned canvas on hand in the department at the disposal of the committee. The mayor of Charleston will be notified at once of this fact. Additional subscriptions of $6,912 were reported today making the amount $23,970.

Winsome Wellington.

Special Dispatch to the Daily Eagle.

WELLINGTON, Sept. 9.--This has been a big day at the fair in this city. During the six years the association has never had a better patronage. F. D. Coburn, of the Live Stock Indicator, Kansas City, is a guest of the management today. Gov. Martin and Congressman Peters, spoke to an immense audience this afternoon on the grounds. Tomorrow the Democrats will hold the fort, and Hon. Thos. Moonlight, T. P. Fenlon and "the Democratic gentleman of color," will address the people.

Associated Press Report.

WELLINGTON, Kan., Sept. 9.--Five thousand summer county farmers listened to the speeches of Gov. Martin and Congressman Peters this afternoon. The distinguished visitors attended a camp-fire at Grand Army hall tonight.

This is the third day of the annual fair of the Summer county agricultural association. Today there were nearly 10,000 people on the grounds. The displays are very creditable. The races are excellent, the large premiums drawing some fine stock--stock exhibits are very large.

CAPITAL BUDGET.

IMPORTANT LAND DECISION.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.--In the case of the Northern Pacific railroad company vs. Benj. W. Clark, involving the right of said company to lands of the ten mile limit granted to said company, and also within ten miles of the located route of the Kansas and Neosho Valley railway, Acting Secretary Mulrow affirmed the decision of the general land office and decides that by priority of the grant to the last named company, its rights took effect on the date of its location to the exclusion of the claim now made by the defendant company herein, and a grant to the Neosho Valley road had been repealed by an act of congress. The land is accordingly awarded to settlers. A large tract of land in southern Kansas will be affected by this decision.

THE CAPTIVE APACHES.

Gen. Drum, acting secretary of war, having been authorized by the president to use his discretion in the treatment of the captured Apaches, has instructed Gen. Miles to remove Geronimo and band to a secure place of confinement, and while it is not yet known at the department whether they have been removed to Fort Bliss, Texas, or some neighboring post. It was not deemed prudent to allow the Indians to remain at Ft. Bowie, as in the event of an escape to the mountains, it would be almost impossible to recapture them. Despite the report made in the official telegram that Geronimo and his band were under no special belief is growing at the war department based on the chief's well-earned reputation as a strategist, that he had made some conditions with his captors that will at least prevent his trial in Arizona. In the absence of a more definite understanding on the subject, it is tolerably safe to say that the Indians will be held at Ft. Bowie, as in the event of an escape to the mountains, it would be almost impossible to recapture them.

For the same reason and it is felt that the only feasible solution of the question of the treatment of Geronimo and his band would be their removal to a reservation (probably in Florida) where from the surroundings, escape would be impossible.

Mr. Atkins, the committee of Indian affairs, is quoted by the Post as insisting that Geronimo must be put to death. The president, he said, will probably acquiesce in whatever proposition Gen. Miles makes for disposing of the murderer. His proposition will doubtless be a court martial, which will not fail to award a death sentence. There is no doubt that the public sentiment of the country demands the death of Geronimo.

Self Explanatory.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.--The following explains itself.

Sir: A week ago I went to a ball and stayed but a short time; went home and to bed early. Next morning my friend, Mr. Ginnard came to me and found me dressing. We went out together. All the officers and members of the jockey club, who were the principal people there, signed the letter exonerating me from any improper behavior at any time during the ball. Gentlemen who saw me return from the ball have signed the card stating they observed nothing except I went toward my room. I have Ginnard's statement in writing to his calling in the morning, besides the statement of the hotel manager. No scene or row of any kind took place in the hall and also I went to my room after the ball. No eye witness has ever been produced and I only know from hearsay what stories are circulated in the United States. Secretary Bayard has telegraphed me my personal denial of the scandal is enough. Make any use of this you may think proper.

(Signed) A. G. SEDGWICK.

Indians and Mexicans.

EL PASO, Sept. 9.--Geronimo with thirty-two hostile Apaches in charge of Capt. John Lawton passed through El Paso at 2 o'clock this morning on the way to Fort Marion, Fla., where they will probably be tried by court martial.

Edward Sedgwick has just left Chilhuauhu and will be in Paso del Norte on Friday. Today he telegraphed Consul Bingham that he would call on him with official credentials.

A Fatal Feud.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Sept. 9.--D. W. McKeehan, a young man living at Tonganoxie in this county, became involved in a quarrel this afternoon with his wife and her father, which resulted in his killing the latter and seriously wounding his wife. McKeehan was arrested and brought to Leavenworth to escape lynching.

Terrible Cholera Scourge.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.--A letter to Bulletin from Zool, Corea, dated August 2nd, states that deaths from Asiatic cholera from July 25th to 25th numbered 3,140. Since then from 257 to 497 persons have died daily. Coffins could not be obtained and the bodies were wrapped in sackings. In many places dogs and vultures had scratched away the light covering of earth and devoured the bodies.

Shouldn't Have Been There.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 9.--Henry H. Meyer, a fresco and scenic artist, this afternoon shot and killed Wm. B. Dunnivant, of the firm of W. B. Dunnivant & Bro., contractors and builders. Dunnivant was in a room with the wife of Meyer, who came upon them unobserved, and in the struggle which ensued Dunnivant was shot and died in a few moments. Meyer surrendered himself to the police.

The Emporia University.

EMPORIA, Kan., Sept. 9.--The board of regents of the state normal school met this morning at the office of President A. R. Taylor. There were present the president and the full board, viz: W. W. Rice, For Scott; John H. Franklin, Russell; Henry D. Dickson, Neosho Falls; Milton Stewart, Wichita; W. H. Caldwell, Beloit; Edgar W. Warner, Kerwin.

The committee of the board appointed to sell the Emporia college, located in Saline, Republic Lincoln, Mitchell and Cloud counties having completed their work and made their report which has been approved by the governor and full board respectively. The report shows that all of the twelve sections of land, or 2,640 acres, was sold, except 300 acres, for the sum of $78,885, or $10.50 per acre. The appraised value of the lands sold was $75,520, the sale being an increase of $3,365 over these figures. Six hundred and forty acres was appraised at fifty cents per acre, being about wholly worthless, which fact makes the average good figure. The two hundred acres which remain unsold is located in Saline and Republic counties and will have to be re-appraised under the law.

This is undoubtedly the best sale of public lands ever made in the state. The sale was made by the board of regents through a committee of members consisting of W. H. Caldwell, J. Franklin and E. W. Warner, the state thus saving the payment of a commission on the sale, which would have amounted to about $2,500.

The opening of the school shows a larger attendance than ever. There are fourteen counties represented by students that were not represented last year. The entrance class numbers 146. The class of students in attendance indicates the growth of the state in wealth and culture, and the classes are all organized and at work.

One of a Million.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 9.--During the past two months repeated attempts have been made to burn down the national stock yards in East St. Louis, and two of the fires started by the incendiaries caused considerable damage to the pens and sheds, but were extinguished before the flames had communicated to any of the large packing houses. The perpetrators of these outrages remained unknown until last Tuesday night, when Joe Carey, the night watchman at Whitaker's packing house, discovered several boys attempting to set the house on fire.

The incendiaries fled at his approach, but he pursued and caught one of them, who proved to be his own son, John, 14 years of age. Yesterday the father took his boy to the president and made him confess. The boy acknowledged that he and two boys named John Reed and Alfred Hopkins had kindled the fires of June 7 and August 5 and 6 and one of which resulted in a loss of $6,000. The boys say they made their attempts to burn down the yards because they were refused work.

The Bismarck Fair.

It Was No Go.

STERLING, Kan., Sept. 9.--An attempt was made last night to burglarize the post-office at Sterling. The burglars crawled through the transom in the rear of the office, drilled holes in the doors of the safe, blew the outer door off with powder, destroyed the bolts of the inner door but did not open it. The burglars probably became alarmed and left the same way they entered. Nothing was taken.

Missouri Pacific surveyors commenced yesterday surveying a line from Sterling north to connect with the line now being run from Salina. This will be the main line of the Missouri Pacific from Wichita west.

YACHT REGATTA.

The Second Contest Between the Mayflower and Galatea.

SANDY HOOK, N. J., Sept. 9.--There was not a ray of sunshine this morning and a thick fog hung over the highlands until between 7 and 9 o'clock when clearing up began. The wind was twenty miles at 8:30 and prospects were good for a fine race. There was an immense fleet in the harbor this morning shortly after day break and unusual activity on the part of yachts. The water was black with all sorts of small craft. Rain fell all morning but this did not prevent vendors of hotels and other points of observation along the narrows from being jammed with thousands who had come down on the early trains from the city.

The Galatea passed the station at 10:11 in tow, and the Mayflower at 10:22. Fog set in again after 10 o'clock and it was impossible to see the station.

At 11:33 the racers were visible from the point of Rock, sailing away under a 2 1/4 mile wind with the Galatea leading the Mayflower 100 yards, but the latter well to windward.

At noon the yachts were again lost in fog, with the Mayflower apparently closing the gap.

1:30 p. m.--A tug boat came in from out of shore, reports when he left the yachts, the Mayflower was about eight miles ahead, but on starboard tack standing toward Rockaway Beach. The Galatea started ahead in the race from Scotland light ship.

2:30 p. m.--The fog is clearing away off shore. Several yachts are cruising outside the bar waiting for the return of the racers. The wind is east, fourteen miles an hour; probably the race will be finished by five o'clock.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.--Incoming boats report that the race is off today on account of the failure to make the distance in the required time.

QUARANTINE, Sept. 9.--The pilot of the bark Nicholas reports that the Mayflower won the race.

THE RACE DECLARED OFF.

There are plenty of disappointed yachtsmen in New York tonight for the second race of the International series has been postponed till Saturday. Sailing in a fresh breeze from the eastward for four hours or more the Mayflower and Galatea with an accompanying fleet of nearly one hundred vessels, were enveloped in a thick fog ten miles east of Sandy Hook light ship and were compelled to abandon the race. When the Mayflower rounded the outer mark, twenty miles east of Scotland light ship at 4h. 30m. 25s. the Galatea was not yet in sight from the point; the Mayflower had out-sailed her on every tack from the start--both carrying the same sail, with a breeze that was steady from about east, with occasional rain squalls and moderately heavy squalls from that quarter. The Mayflower could not have finished the race in the allotted time, seven hours, even if the weather had remained clear.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.--The excursion steamer Empire State, with 400 passengers, is ashore one and one-half miles south of Sandy Hook point.

Later--The excursion steamer Empire State with about 800 passengers went ashore during a dense fog at 7:30 this evening on Sandy Hook beach, about half way between life saving stations Nos. 1 and 2. The crews of the stations, together with the steamer's boats, landed all the passengers on the beach in safety.

Assistance was at once sent for to get the steamer off. A steamer has also been sent for to convey the passengers to the city, many of whom live out of town. The steamer lies in an easy position.

It is rumored here that another steamer is ashore off Sealights. In all six guns have been heard this evening since 7 o'clock, which were taken for signals of distress, but nothing definite can be learned.

Collision of Steamers.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.--Capt. Morrow of the tugboat Robert Robinson, reports a collision of the steamer City of Alexandria with a steam dredge at the Hook at 4:20 p. m., during a dense fog. The City of Alexandria struck the dredge, which immediately sank. The crew of the Alexandria, two of them slightly injured. The damage to the steamer is unknown.

It could not be ascertained whether the steamer proceeded on her course to Havana owing to the fog. The dredge is in a very dangerous position for the large number of steam and sailing craft bound in from the yacht race.

OVER THE OCEAN.

Bulgaria.

LOMPALANSKA, Sept. 9.--When Alexander arrived here yesterday, the streets were crowded with triumphal arches. Everything was done to make the prince feel the people wished to look upon his departure as transient. The vice-president of the assembly in his farewell address to the prince said: "The Bulgarians will never forget they owed everything to him. They had secured a united nation and would continue to consider him their ruler. Although he departed, they hoped for his speedy return. The prince in reply said he was happy when Bulgarians were content. He would be ever ready to assist Bulgaria when she might be in need. I hope to see you all soon, he said in conclusion. The school children of Lomपालanska strewed Alexander's path through the city with flowers.

Ireland.

DUBLIN, Sept. 9.--The United Ireland says: No power in Great Britain can collect the landlord's tribute in Ireland in the face of an organized, united and levelheaded people.

Catholic bishops assembled at Maynooth and set a memorial to the English government urging the adoption of temporary measures to relieve the Irish tenantry and prevent outrages which may recur in simple desperation.

The conference of Catholic bishops at Maynooth adopted resolutions today declaring that the Irish people appreciated Mr. Gladstone's efforts in behalf of Ireland, and still adhered to their demand for home rule, and indignantly denying Tory assertions that if the Irish people were allowed to govern themselves in domestic affairs the Catholic majority would abuse the power conferred on the Irish parliament and harass the protestants of the country. The resolutions further declare that trouble and disorder in both Ireland and Great Britain will not cease until Ireland's right to administer her own laws is recognized.

Most Rev. Wm. J. Walsh, archbishop of Dublin, Most Rev. Thomas W. Croker, archbishop of Cashel, Most Rev. John Macneville, archbishop of Team, with twenty-three bishops, were present at the conference when the resolutions were adopted.

The troops engaged in the Woodford evictions on their return to the barracks at Birr, protested against the work of forcibly putting helpless, indurated and starving people out of shelter into the roadway and declared they would in future refuse to perform such obnoxious duty. No efforts on the part of their superior officers could quiet the determined indignation of the soldiers, twenty of whom were placed under arrest on a charge of mutiny.

Mr. Louder, chairman of the Westport board of quays, formerly a prominent member of the national league, accuses the league of investing the American donations instead of using the money to help evicted tenants. He says that the league has shamefully rejected appeals for Galway and male tenants, saying that they were only fit for emigration.

England.

LONDON, Sept. 9.--It is rumored that Russia asked the port if it would sanction the restoration of Alexander. The port replied that as the prince in the recent action totally ignored the port, Turkey would confine herself to supporting the decision of the powers.

Alexander's triumphal progress is almost without a parallel. At every village in Bulgaria through which he passed, the Bulgarians were awaiting his coming and his every step was greeted with enthusiasm. Similar scenes occurred on the Romanian here and in Austria.

After the prince had departed from Pesth a hostile demonstration was made before the Russian consulate, and the police had to be summoned to disperse the crowd.

Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 8.--The papers generally take the position that the present regency and ministry of Bulgaria contain elements of fresh complications.

The Novor Vremya says that Prince Alexander appointed the regency without having first obtained the national assembly's assent, which it contends was brother of the Timova constitution.

Col. Monkoroff, one of the regents appointed by the prince, and who commanded loyal troops under the counter provisional government after the recent coup d'etat, the Novor Vremya says, is not qualified for membership in the regency because he is not a member of the Bulgarian national assembly. Continuing the Novor Vremya says, the first comedy of Alexander's selection to the Bulgarian throne will be played by Solovayev. All other St. Petersburg papers condemn Alexander's departure from Bulgaria final. The Journal de St. Petersburg says Alexander's departure removes the chief difficulty in the settlement of Bulgarian affairs. After the recent severe crisis at home and abroad, order and greatness in Bulgaria were necessary. Russia does not dream of lessening the independence she conquered for Bulgaria.
